Appeals against NEA must be made by the given deadline.

Appeals Against NEA

The process for managing appeals against NEA is detailed in a separate appeals policy, available from the Exams Office.

Retention of NEA and Portfolios

The centre will store safely and securely NEA or portfolios retained in, or returned to, the centre until the certificates have been issued by the Exam Board, with the exception of Pearson BTEC which will be retained for no less than twelve months after the results have been issued. After this time, they will either be returned to the candidate or disposed of securely. The candidate will need to make arrangements with the Head of Department for the collection of work.

Appeals

If the candidate is dissatisfied with the outcome of a review of marking or moderation (RoMM) or special consideration, they may wish to appeal against the decision, where the awarding body allows.

The Head of Centre can appeal within 30 calendar days for the receipt of the outcome.
