

How Spain (Narrowly) Became a Democracy

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=WYts75ZEslE>

1. What did Spain and France have in common?

2. How long did the first Spanish Republic last?

3. What 3 things were Spaniards instituting during the Second Spanish Republic?

4. What were the two sides of the Spanish Civil War?

5. In what year did the fascists win the Spanish Civil War?

6. What was the name of the leader of Spain's new leader?

7. What 3 aspects did the plan for Francoist Spain contain?

8. What 2 things did Franco do to ensure his regime succeeded?

9. What did Franco do in 1947?

10. Who did Franco choose to be the next future king?

11. What was Franco's party called?

12. After Franco's death in 1975, Juan Carlos appointed a liberal prime minister.

True / False

13. What did Francoist terrorists do in protest against Juan Carlos?

14. The attempted coup in 1981 consisted of how many soldiers and how many tanks?

15. Which 2 places did the attempted coup take place?

How Spain (Narrowly) Became a Democracy

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=WYts75ZEsIE>

1. What did Spain and France have in common?

Remained a monarchy for most of its existence

2. How long did the first Spanish Republic last?

1 year (1873-1874)

3. What 3 things were Spaniards instituting during the Second Spanish Republic?

Freedom of speech, women suffrage, divorce

4. What were the two sides of the Spanish Civil War?

Radical socialists and anarchists vs conservatives and fascists

5. In what year did the fascists win the Spanish Civil War?

1939

6. What was the name of the leader of Spain's new leader?

Francisco Franco

7. What 3 aspects did the plan for Francoist Spain contain?

Single party dictatorship, closed economy, suppression of opposition

8. What 2 things did Franco do to ensure his regime succeeded?

Spain remained neutral in WW2 and aligned Spain with USA

9. What did Franco do in 1947?

Restored monarchy

10. Who did Franco choose to be the next future king?

Juan Carlos

11. What was Franco's party called?

The Falangists

12. After Franco's death in 1975, Juan Carlos appointed a liberal prime minister.

True / False

13. What did Francoist terrorists do in protest against Juan Carlos?

Bomb police stations

14. The attempted coup in 1981 consisted of how many soldiers and how many tanks?

2000 soldiers and 50 tanks

15. Which 2 places did the attempted coup take place?

Madrid and Valencia